

Dear Customer:

Starlite Cuisine decided that effective August 1, 2004, it will no longer manufacture products bearing a Kosher symbol on its packaging. Any product on retail shelves that now has the "Star-K" symbol was manufactured prior to August 1, 2004. Products affected by this change are Beef Style, Chicken Style, and Soy Chorizo Taquitos, and Santa Fe Style, Garlic Chicken Style, and Soy Chorizo Rolled Tacos.

Starlite Cuisine's agreement with Star-K expired on July 31, 2004. Starlite Cuisine regrets its decision to discontinue Kosher certification, but elected to discontinue manufacturing products bearing a Kosher symbol due to a breakdown in negotiations with Star K to renew the agreement.

We hope that some time in the future to again be certified for Kosher products. Despite the expiration of the agreement, Starlite Cuisine has been dedicated, and remains dedicated to maintain the high quality and great taste of its Taquito and Rolled Taco lines, and its new Lean Carb line.

Sincerely,

June Wang Lim
President
